Editor's Foreword

Each moment and with each passing day, we are born into a facet of life. As our lives unfold before us we find them filled with excitement, emotion, and all of the things that make this the real life. But life and each of its segments and almost as quickly as they began. We feel that the events that occurred in your lives were important in making this year what it was. We have taken those events and made a record of them. This book is that record. We now return to you those events and those particular memories that made this LIFE.

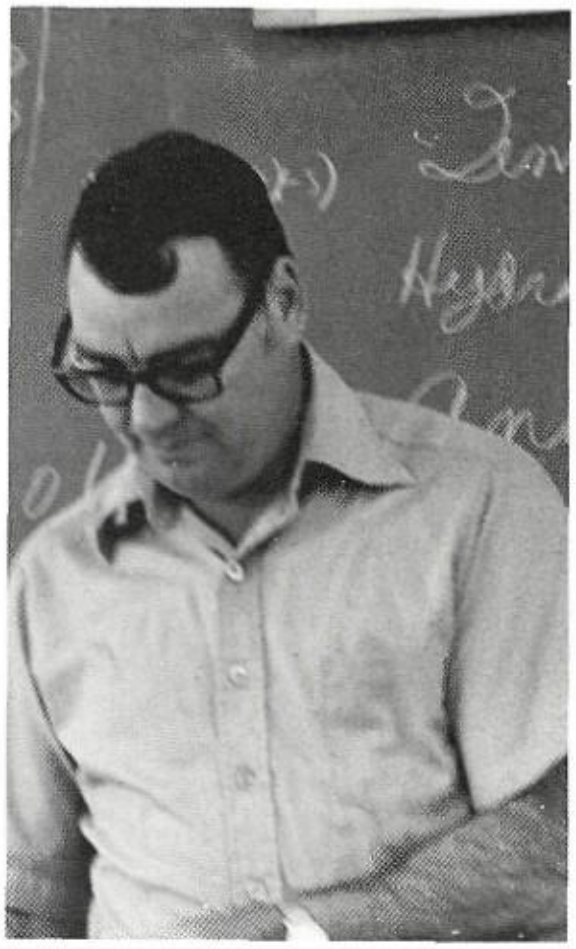
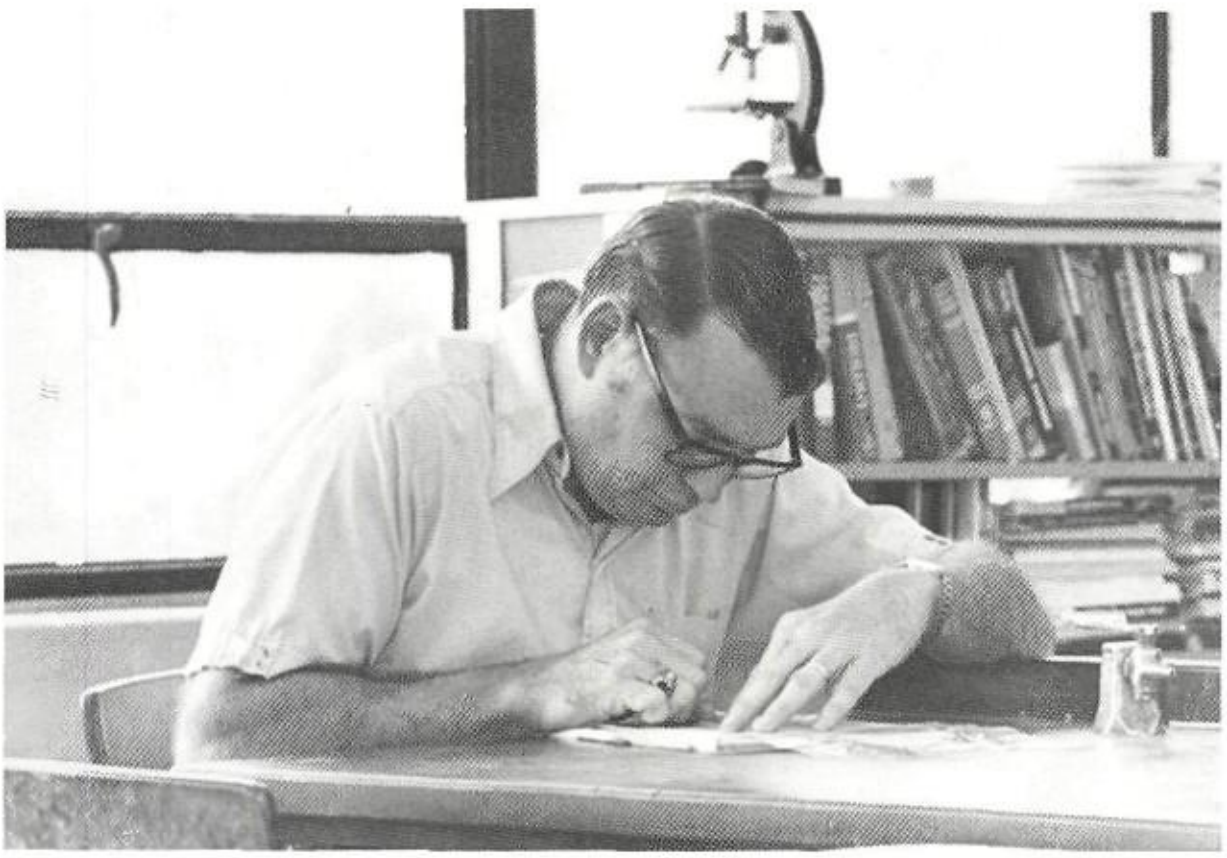
DEDICATION

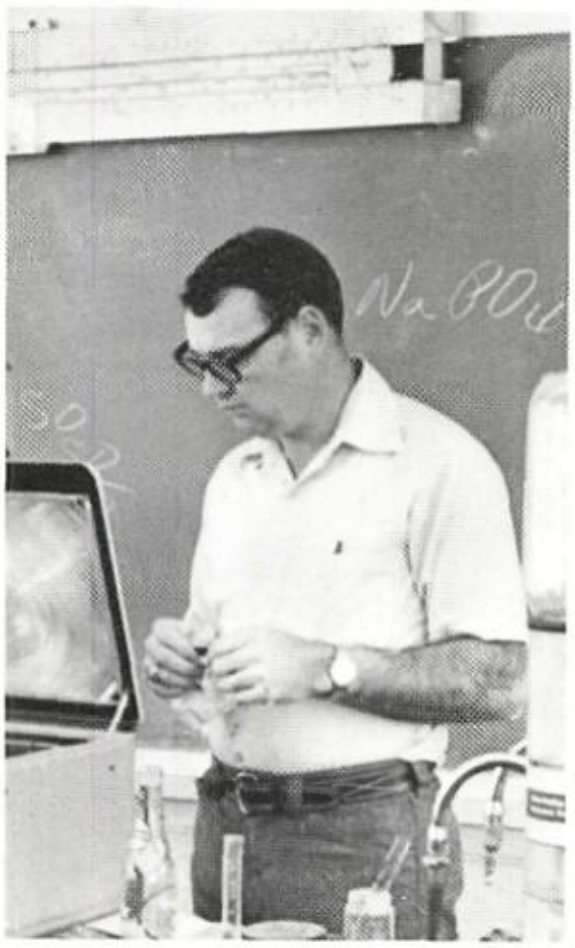
"A tree is identified by the kind of fruit it produces. A tree from good stock doesn't produce scrub fruit nor do trees from poor stock produce choice fruit. A good man produces good deeds from a good heart. And an evil man produces evil deeds from his hidden wickedness. Whatever is in the heart overflows into speech.

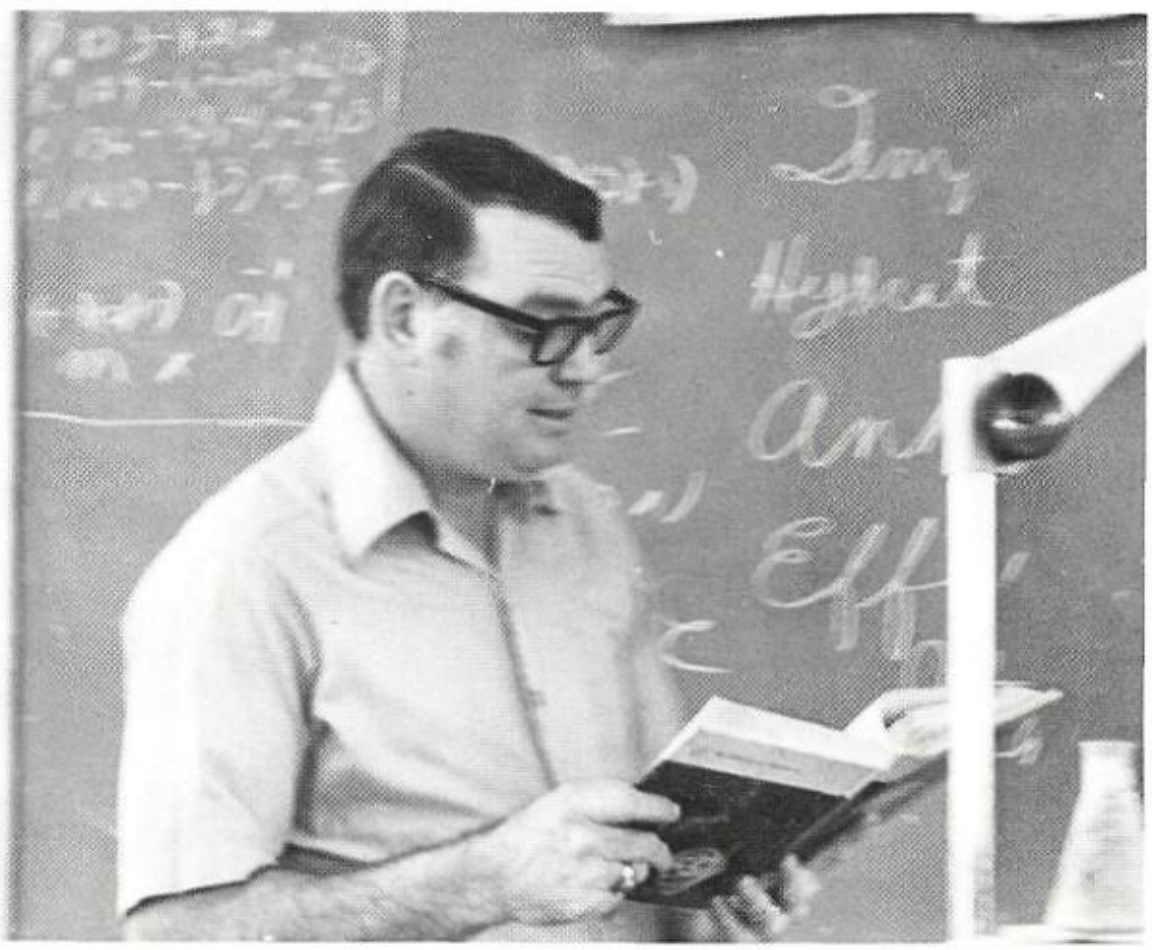
Luke 6:43-45

As a teacher he exhibits an undying love for people and always strives to shape our lives both mentally and spiritually. In his life he shows an unwavering pride in school and country, and he is always willing to help when needed. For his contribution to our lives and for being the fantastic example he is, we dedicate the 1973 Bobcat annual to Mr. Paul Witt.



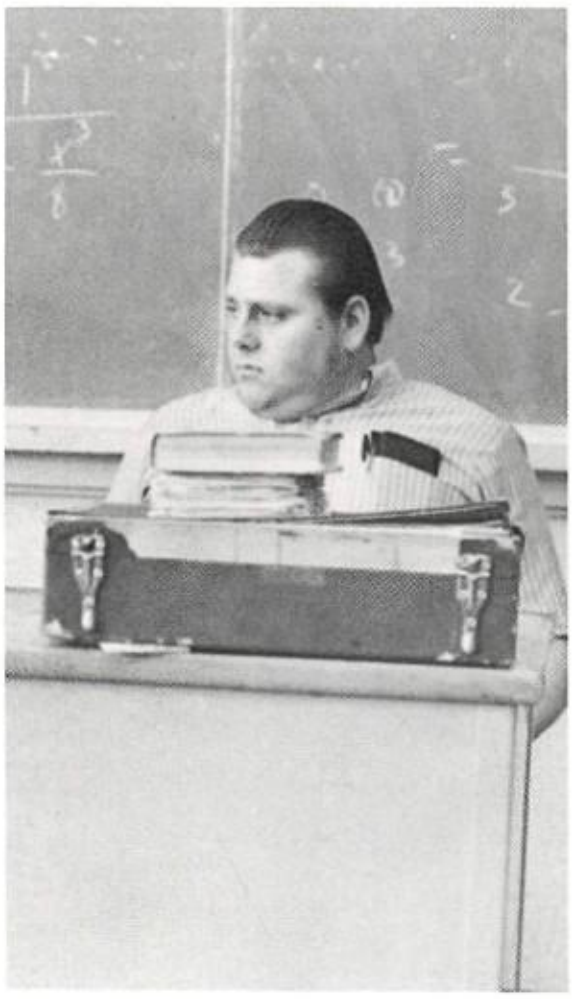






FACULTY

Shall we not learn from life its laws, dynamics, and balances? Learn to base our needs not on destruction and waste but on renewal? In wisdom learn at last to shape a civilization in harmony with the earth?



To our superintendent, B. H. Hudspeth, the '73 Bobcat annual staff would like to say "Thanks" for the concern he has shown throughout the years. His advice has proved to be invaluable on many occasions. We greatly appreciate the amount of time and effort that Mr. Hudspeth and Mr. Hunt put into their jobs as the leaders of the Hallsville Schools.

Faculty '73

One of the greatest assets of our teaching staff this year has been the variety of talents found in the teachers. They have applied these talents to help the students in extracurricular as well as academic activities. We appreciate our teachers for the concern, understanding, humor, and sense of involvement they have shown.

SENIORS —

Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul,
Leave each new temple nobler than the last Shut thee from heaven with a dome more vast Till thou art at length free,
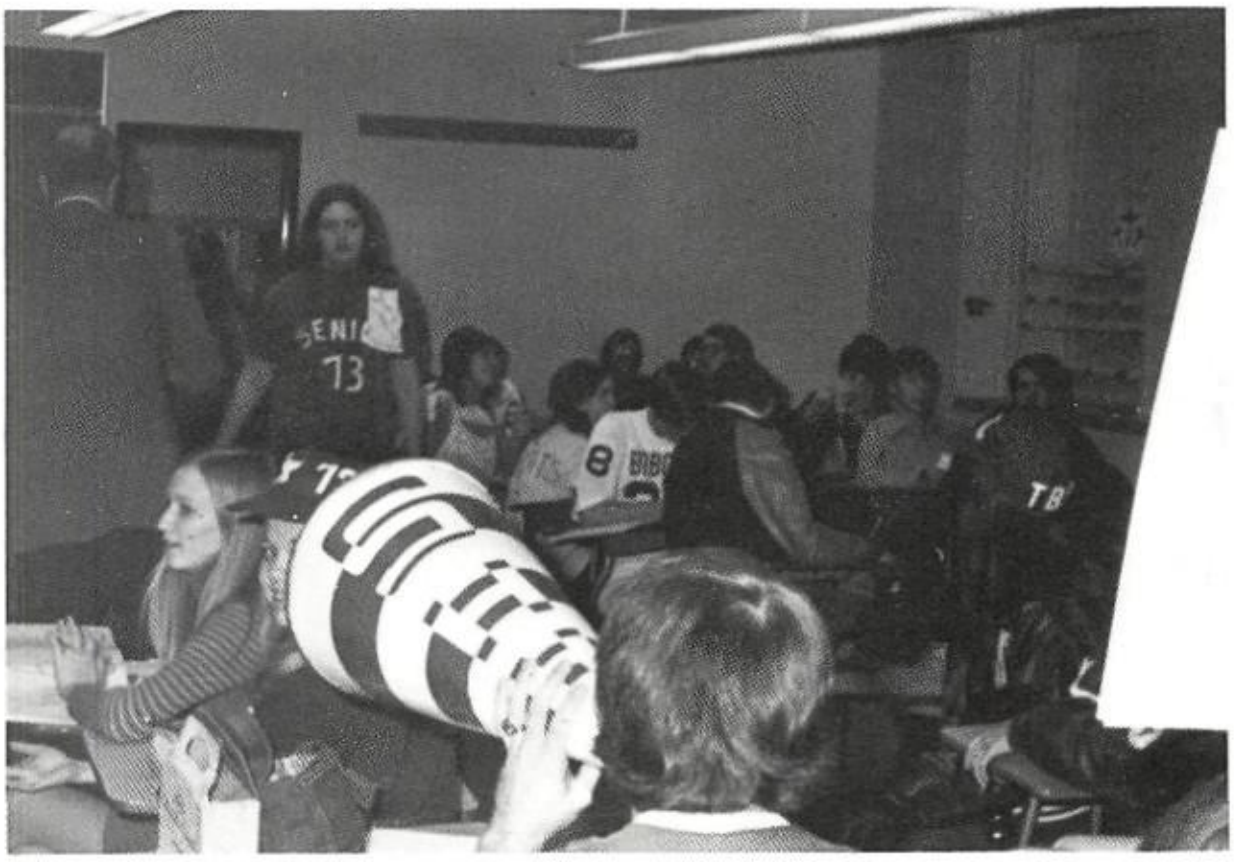
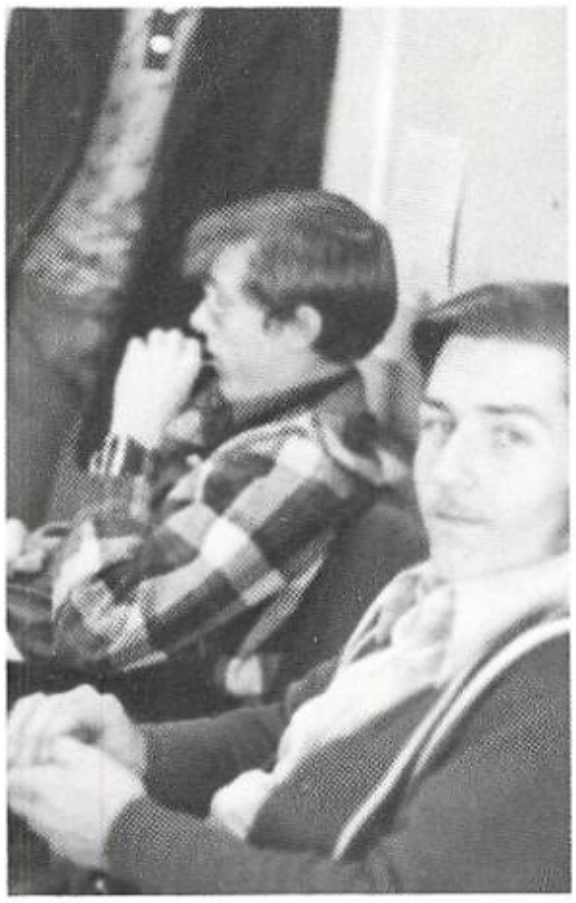
Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea.





So it is with life and its ways. One way ends and yet another begins. We die yet we are born.

The band marched to many victories this year, but only as the result of constant work and effort put forth by the members. The band will undoubtedly continue its reputation of success in the days ahead.

There are places
I remember
All my life though Some have changed;
Some forever not for better, some have gone, some remained. All these places have their moments, with lovers and friends I still recall. Some are dead and some are living.
In my life
I loved them
All!

ALMA MATER

We lift our voices,
your praises to sing.
Our Alma Mater,
more glory to bring.
Proudly wave your colors, Long may they fly. Hail to thee Our Alma Mater, Hallsville High.

IN MEMORY OF
CAROL HUMPHRIES

January 15, 1965 — February 8, 1973

There is a plan far greater than the plan you know.
There is a landscape broader than the one you see.
There is a haven where storm-tossed souls may go -
You call it death - we, immortality.

You call it death - this seeming endless sleep;
We call it birth - the soul at last set free.
'Tis hampered not by time or space - you weep.
Why weep at death? 'Tis immortality.

Silently
I cry out to anyone who will listen —
See my competence
and my compassion;
I want to do something concrete with my creed.
Like changing things
for people,
reaching out, caring,
touching, lifting.
I'm warm and alive,
and sometimes I cry
because of pain,
injustice, isolation and unfulfilled possibility in the world.
I need SOMETHING to put my feelings in touch with people who need me.
